LETTER

Honorable Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

A question has been raised by the United States Patent and Trademark Office regarding the authenticity of the signature on documents filed by me in the above captioned application. Following a thorough review of the documents submitted by my office to the United States Patent and Trademark Office, I find no forgery. To overcome any questions of impropriety, however, I am resubmitting the attached document for filing in the above-captioned patent application with a new signature and date ratifying my prior signature. If you have any question in these regards, please let me know.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael J. Colitz, Jr.
